

ADELAIDE Eden Comfort Conditioning

Eden Comfort Conditioning

Sold

At A Glance:

- Established in 1990
- Hydronic & electric underfloor heating
- Loyal customer base
- Servicing Adelaide's top luxury home builders
- Can be run from home, no lease required

Established in 1990, Eden Comfort Conditioning stands as a prominent player in the underfloor heating industry, specialising in hydronic and electric underfloor heating systems.

The business has become a go-to choice for Adelaide's top builders and developers, along with homeowners seeking innovative and efficient heating solutions. They are also importers of

Property ID	L26270139
Property Type	Repair

AGENT

Paul Windle

📞 0410 394 254

✉️ paul.windle@sa.rhc.com.au

heating cables and electric thermostats, and their hydronic (heated water) systems are sourced locally and interstate.

Eden Comfort Conditioning has cultivated a loyal client base, including homeowners, businesses, and property managers, and has successfully maintained long-term relationships with clients through its dedication to quality service.

The nature of the business allows a new owner the choice to obtain a leased premises, incorporate it into their existing facilities, or operate from the comfort of their home.

The sale of this business presents an excellent opportunity to step into a well-established and respected business with a proven track record in providing cutting-edge heating solutions.

Paul Windle 0410 394 254

RLA 283100